Darwin Takaki for Ricky Silva, Age Group –

- No report.

Warren Lager, Senior (via email) –

- The site and date for the 2009 Spring Sectional Championship Meet have not been set. The meet will be either February 25th to March 1st, or March 4th to March 8th.

Judy Siegrist, Registration –

- Athlete registration is up from 2007. This is expected during an Olympic year.

Standing Committees:

David Cottam, Scheduling -

- The first round of bidding for 2009 Pacific meets is over, and several meets have been awarded, and approved by Board of Directors.
- Bids for any open meets must be sent to David Cottam by July 20th.
- Carson City Tigersharks returned the December Senior Championship Meet. Any club interested in hosting this meet should contact David Cottam by July 31st.

Gwenn Chong for Kent Yoshiwara, Diversity -

- Zone 2 donated $5,000 to Bear Swimming to continue its Swim-4-Life program, which provides team fees and tutoring for qualifying swimmers who maintain an 'A' average in school and make 90% of team practices and meets.
- Coach Ben Shepherd and 15 Oakland Undercurrent swimmers traveled to New Orleans to promote swimming and teach lessons in areas of the city affected by Hurricane Katrina. USA Swimming filmed portions of their visit to play during the Olympic Trials in Omaha.

Marie Wise, Disability Swimming –

- When athletes with disabilities need to include the proper disability category and classification on their annual athlete registration form. These are available on the United States Olympic Committee website.
- Two Northern California swimmers will travel to Beijing to participate in the Paralympics Games that follow the Olympic Games.
